Word of the Day

This week's suffix is "ship," which is Old English for quality, condition or state of being.

"readership"

Part of Speech: noun

Definition: "people who read a particular publication, author, etc."

"Our local newspaper has a very loyal readership."

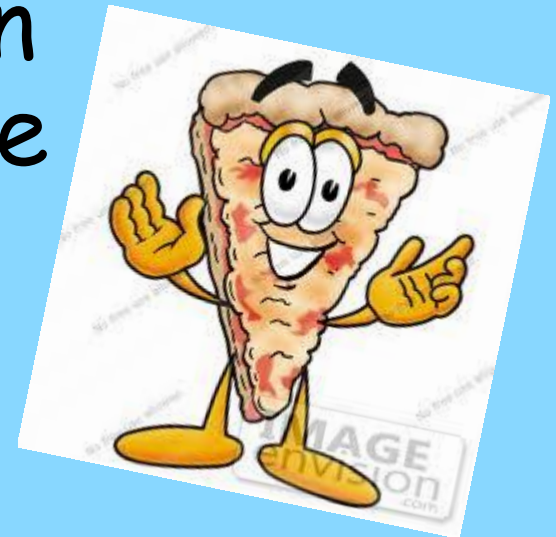

On This Day in History

- 1794 - President George Washington approved a measure adding two stars and two stripes to the American flag, following the admission of Vermont and Kentucky.
- 1854 - Anthony Faas patented the accordion.
- 1928 - Ernst Alexanderson gave the first public demonstration of the television.
- 1957 - Wham-O began producing "Pluto Platters." This marked the beginning of production of the flying disc, which later became the Frisbee.
- 1999 - Michael Jordan announced his retirement from basketball.

January Pizza Day

There have been some changes made to the January Pizza Day. Instead of Friday, January 13th, we will now have pizza on Friday, January 20th. In addition, the pizza will be from Salina's instead of Potsy's Pizza.
